

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles -

Set 1

1-) What does the traveler decide to do first in his search for his Lord through creation? (25 kelime)

He decides to turn first to

2-) What does he conclude should come before examining other creatures? (17 kelime)

He concludes that he

3-) What change does the traveler observe in the Prophet's age? (19 kelime)

He sees that the

4-) What does the traveler observe about the Prophet's historical age? (13 kelime)

He sees it

5-) How many broad proofs does the passage say were found for this investigation? (3 kelime)

6-) What exactly does he want to verify about the Prophet's message? (15 kelime)

He wants to

7-) Name two miracles mentioned in the passage. (13 kelime)

The moon being

8-) What three miracle examples are given? (21 kelime)

The moon was split, dust

9-) What conclusion does the traveler draw from the Prophet's noble qualities and miracles? (13 kelime)

He concludes that

10-) Why is it meaningful that there were more than three hundred miracles? (17 kelime)

It shows that the

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 2

1-) In the traveler's search through the universe, whom does he decide to approach before all others? (12 kelime)

He decides to

2-) By what means is he carrying out that search? (11 kelime)

He is

3-) How does the traveler "enter" the Prophet's time? (8 kelime)

He enters

4-) What does the traveler's mind witness when entering the Prophet's era? (12 kelime)

It witnesses a

5-) Why does the traveler pause before asking the Prophet directly about the Creator? (18 kelime)

He first wants to

6-) How many principal proofs are announced in summary form? (3 kelime)

7-) How are the miracles supported according to the passage? (17 kelime)

They are supported by

8-) Which miracle in the passage involves the sky? (5 kelime)

The

9-) Which miracle shows power over the visible world? (5 kelime)
The

10-) Why does the passage mention another text about miracles instead of explaining everything here? (18 kelime)
Because the fuller documentation

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 3

1-) What method is the traveler using to seek his Master and Creator?
(15 kelime)

He is trying

2-) What view of the Prophet's public standing appears in the passage?
(14 kelime)

He is shown

3-) Which areas of excellence are especially stressed about him? (9 kelime)

Leadership, public

4-) How does the passage portray them after his guidance? (14 kelime)

It portrays them

5-) What first step in investigation does the traveler take regarding the Prophet? (13 kelime)

He begins by

6-) What does the phrase about "conclusive proofs" suggest about the investigation? (15 kelime)

It suggests that

7-) What role do enemies play in this proof? (12 kelime)

Their testimony strengthens

8-) What miracle demonstrates abundance coming from little? (9 kelime)

Water flowing

9-) What final judgment does the traveler make after considering the first proof? (15 kelime)

He judges that

10-) What is the connection between miracles and truthfulness in this passage? (20 kelime)

The miracles support the claim

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 4

1-) What inner conversation begins the target passage? (16 kelime)
The traveler speaks to

2-) How is the Prophet's rank described even by those who opposed him? (12 kelime)
Even his enemies

3-) What two gifts of the Prophet are said to light up many centuries? (6 kelime)
His

4-) Before asking about the Creator, what two things does the traveler want to establish about the Prophet? (19 kelime)
He wants to know

5-) What question does the traveler postpone for a moment? (14 kelime)
He delays asking

6-) What does the passage say about the Prophet's character traits? (14 kelime)
It says that

7-) What is the core of the first proof? (16 kelime)
The first proof rests

8-) Why does the passage not explain all the miracles in detail here?

(21 kelime)

Because it says those many

9-) How does the traveler connect noble character and miracles to truthfulness? (16 kelime)

He sees them together

10-) What picture of falsehood does the passage give when rejecting it from the Prophet? (17 kelime)

It presents lying and

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 5

1-) What is the traveler's larger goal in this passage? (12 kelime)
His larger goal

2-) What lasting influence of the Prophet is highlighted? (12 kelime)
His excellence and

3-) What signs of greatness are attached to the Prophet in the opening lines? (13 kelime)
His unmatched leadership,

4-) What example of civilizational change is given in the passage? (20 kelime)
People who had been considered

5-) What does the traveler think must be known before asking theological questions? (12 kelime)
He thinks the

6-) What is included in the first proof besides miracles? (8 kelime)
The Prophet's

7-) What sources are mentioned for confirming the miracles? (5 kelime)
The

8-) Which miracle shows provision for people in need? (10 kelime)
Water flowing

9-) Which miracle in the passage involves the enemy in combat? (8 kelime)

Throwing dust

10-) What moral and logical result does the traveler draw from all this evidence? (21 kelime)

He concludes that a man

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 6

1-) Who is the first person the traveler wants to consult in his journey toward knowing the Creator? (13 kelime)

He wants first

2-) Why is that priority presented as reasonable? (14 kelime)

Because among creatures

3-) How does the passage portray the condition of the people before his guidance reached them? (10 kelime)

It portrays

4-) How does the passage describe the people transformed by the Prophet's message? (22 kelime)

They are described as starting

5-) What two related traits of the Prophet are examined first? (12 kelime)

His truthfulness and

6-) What does the first proof combine? (7 kelime)

It

7-) Why is moral excellence important in this proof, not just miracles? (10 kelime)

Because it

8-) What does the passage imply by mentioning hundreds of miracles but discussing only a few? (14 kelime)
It implies that

9-) What miracle demonstrates divine help against opponents? (11 kelime)
Dust cast

10-) What is that main conclusion about the Prophet's speech? (18 kelime)
His speech must be

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the traveler decide to do first in his search for his Lord through creation?

He decides to turn first to the most outstanding human being among creation and seek guidance from Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him.

2-) What does he conclude should come before examining other creatures?

He concludes that he should first turn to the most honored and influential human messenger among them.

3-) What change does the traveler observe in the Prophet's age?

He sees that the Prophet's time became an age of true happiness and blessing because of what he brought.

4-) What does the traveler observe about the Prophet's historical age?

He sees it as a blessed period marked by genuine happiness and flourishing.

5-) How many broad proofs does the passage say were found for this investigation?

Nine general proofs.

6-) What exactly does he want to verify about the Prophet's message?

He wants to verify the truth of his speech and the reliability of his warnings.

7-) Name two miracles mentioned in the passage.

The moon being split and water flowing from his fingers for the army.

8-) What three miracle examples are given?

The moon was split, dust thrown at enemies led to their defeat, and water flowed from his fingers for thirsty soldiers.

9-) What conclusion does the traveler draw from the Prophet's noble qualities and miracles?

He concludes that such a person must be the most truthful of people.

10-) Why is it meaningful that there were more than three hundred miracles?

It shows that the signs were not isolated events but part of a large body of evidence.

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the traveler's search through the universe, whom does he decide to approach before all others?

He decides to approach Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him.

2-) By what means is he carrying out that search?

He is seeking through reflection on the beings within the universe.

3-) How does the traveler "enter" the Prophet's time?

He enters that blessed period in his mind.

4-) What does the traveler's mind witness when entering the Prophet's era?

It witnesses a blessed time transformed by the Prophet's presence and mission.

5-) Why does the traveler pause before asking the Prophet directly about the Creator?

He first wants to verify the Prophet's standing and the truthfulness of what he says and warns about.

6-) How many principal proofs are announced in summary form?

Nine principal proofs.

7-) How are the miracles supported according to the passage?

They are supported by clear Qur'anic verses or by reports transmitted so widely that doubt is removed.

8-) Which miracle in the passage involves the sky?

The splitting of the moon.

9-) Which miracle shows power over the visible world?

The splitting of the moon.

10-) Why does the passage mention another text about miracles instead of explaining everything here?

Because the fuller documentation is said to be available there, while this section focuses on the main conclusion.

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) What method is the traveler using to seek his Master and Creator?
He is trying to know his Lord by reflecting on the creatures in the universe.
- 2-) What view of the Prophet's public standing appears in the passage?
He is shown as a uniquely prominent and highly respected figure among human beings.
- 3-) Which areas of excellence are especially stressed about him?
Leadership, public influence, eloquence, intelligence, and long-lasting spiritual impact.
- 4-) How does the passage portray them after his guidance?
It portrays them as people who rose to become leaders and teachers for others.
- 5-) What first step in investigation does the traveler take regarding the Prophet?
He begins by examining his value, honesty, and the truth of his warnings.
- 6-) What does the phrase about "conclusive proofs" suggest about the investigation?
It suggests that the traveler is relying on strong and persuasive evidence, not weak impressions.
- 7-) What role do enemies play in this proof?
Their testimony strengthens the case because even opponents acknowledge his exceptional qualities.
- 8-) What miracle demonstrates abundance coming from little?
Water flowing from his fingers for a thirsty army.
- 9-) What final judgment does the traveler make after considering the first proof?
He judges that such a person cannot be guilty of lying, deceit, or serious error.
- 10-) What is the connection between miracles and truthfulness in this passage?
The miracles support the claim that the one through whom they appeared was trustworthy and would not stoop to lying.

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What inner conversation begins the target passage?

The traveler speaks to his own mind about how he should continue searching for his Lord.

2-) How is the Prophet's rank described even by those who opposed him?

Even his enemies are presented as confirming his greatness, ability, and distinction.

3-) What two gifts of the Prophet are said to light up many centuries?

His personal excellence and the Qur'an.

4-) Before asking about the Creator, what two things does the traveler want to establish about the Prophet?

He wants to know his true worth and to confirm the honesty and reliability of his speech and warnings.

5-) What question does the traveler postpone for a moment?

He delays asking directly about the Creator until he first confirms the Prophet's trustworthiness.

6-) What does the passage say about the Prophet's character traits?

It says that high moral qualities and noble traits were found in him completely.

7-) What is the core of the first proof?

The first proof rests on the Prophet's complete moral excellence and the miracles shown through him.

8-) Why does the passage not explain all the miracles in detail here?

Because it says those many miracles have already been proven in detail in another work, so the discussion is left there.

9-) How does the traveler connect noble character and miracles to truthfulness?

He sees them together as showing that the Prophet stands at the highest level of honesty.

10-) What picture of falsehood does the passage give when rejecting it from the Prophet?

It presents lying and trickery as low actions unfit for a person of such rank and excellence.

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the traveler's larger goal in this passage?

His larger goal is to find and know his Lord and Creator.

2-) What lasting influence of the Prophet is highlighted?

His excellence and the Qur'an are said to have illuminated fourteen centuries.

3-) What signs of greatness are attached to the Prophet in the opening lines?

His unmatched leadership, broad fame, powerful speech, sharp intellect, and long historical influence.

4-) What example of civilizational change is given in the passage?

People who had been considered primitive and unable to read or write became guides and teachers for the wider world.

5-) What does the traveler think must be known before asking theological questions?

He thinks the Prophet's rank and complete honesty must be established first.

6-) What is included in the first proof besides miracles?

The Prophet's moral beauty and outstanding personal qualities.

7-) What sources are mentioned for confirming the miracles?

The Qur'an and mass-transmitted reports.

8-) Which miracle shows provision for people in need?

Water flowing from his fingers to satisfy the army's thirst.

9-) Which miracle in the passage involves the enemy in combat?

Throwing dust that caused the enemy to withdraw.

10-) What moral and logical result does the traveler draw from all this evidence?

He concludes that a man with such perfection and such signs from Allah cannot be accused of deception or false speech.

lisans supreme-sign-p40-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-1st-proof-morality-and-miracles - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is the first person the traveler wants to consult in his journey toward knowing the Creator?

He wants first to consult Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him.

2-) Why is that priority presented as reasonable?

Because among creatures he is portrayed as the most distinguished and most accomplished guide.

3-) How does the passage portray the condition of the people before his guidance reached them?

It portrays them as socially undeveloped and lacking formal learning.

4-) How does the passage describe the people transformed by the Prophet's message?

They are described as starting from a very undeveloped and uneducated condition and then rising to world leadership in knowledge and guidance.

5-) What two related traits of the Prophet are examined first?

His truthfulness and the reliability of what he communicates and warns about.

6-) What does the first proof combine?

It combines noble character with extraordinary miracles.

7-) Why is moral excellence important in this proof, not just miracles?

Because it shows inward integrity, making falsehood even less imaginable.

8-) What does the passage imply by mentioning hundreds of miracles but discussing only a few?

It implies that the evidence is abundant and only sample cases are needed here.

9-) What miracle demonstrates divine help against opponents?

Dust cast toward the enemy led to their defeat and retreat.

10-) What is that main conclusion about the Prophet's speech?

His speech must be completely truthful, and deceit or lying cannot fit someone of his rank and signs.

