

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 1

1-) What personal quality did he show when powerful groups and even close relatives opposed him? (9 kelime)

He showed

2-) Which kinds of opponents are mentioned in the passage? (13 kelime)

Political powers, religious

3-) How did he respond emotionally to that intense opposition? (8 kelime)

He did

4-) What later historical outcome is given as evidence for the strength of his mission? (11 kelime)

He overcame

5-) According to the passage, what does that success prove about his role in delivering the message? (18 kelime)

It proves that no

6-) How is his faith described in terms of strength and certainty? (10 kelime)

It is

7-) What failed to shake his conviction? (18 kelime)

The dominant beliefs, philosophical

8-) What effect did opposition have on his trust and confidence? (7 kelime)

It

9-) Who are said to have drawn from his faith across the generations? (11 kelime)

The most

10-) What conclusion did the traveler reach about truthfulness and deceit? (20 kelime)

He concluded that falsehood and

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 2

1-) What main subject is emphasized in the first paragraph of the target passage? (9 kelime)

His firmness

2-) Why is the opposition against him presented as especially severe? (17 kelime)

Because it came not

3-) What does the passage suggest about his inner state during conflict? (8 kelime)

His heart

4-) How does the passage connect his steadfastness with the spread of Islam? (19 kelime)

His victory and the

5-) What features of his faith are highlighted besides strength? (6 kelime)

Its

6-) What kinds of intellectual or religious systems could not unsettle him? (10 kelime)

The prevailing

7-) What does it mean that later righteous believers drew from his fountain of faith? (10 kelime)

Their own

8-) Who is named first among those outstanding believers? (2 kelime)

9-) What does the passage say this continued reliance on his faith proves? (8 kelime)

It proves

10-) Which moral faults are ruled out in the final sentence? (7 kelime)

Lying

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 3

1-) In the passage, what two major qualities are used to support his truthfulness? (10 kelime)

His fearless

2-) What does the mention of his uncle add to the description of opposition? (13 kelime)

It shows that

3-) When faced with hostility, what signs of weakness are specifically denied? (5 kelime)

Doubt,

4-) How is his public mission described in relation to the whole world? (12 kelime)

He is portrayed

5-) Why does the passage treat this achievement as proof rather than just success? (16 kelime)

Because such a result,

6-) How does the passage portray the firmness of his belief compared with the ideas of his time? (12 kelime)

His belief remained

7-) What could hostile thinkers and religious leaders not produce in him? (11 kelime)

They could

8-) How do the saintly people of later ages function as evidence in the argument? (17 kelime)

Their dependence on his

9-) What is the traveler doing when he affirms this with his intellect? (10 kelime)

He is

10-) What final judgment is made about his character? (11 kelime)

A person

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 4

1-) What does the passage show about his consistency under pressure?
(11 kelime)

He stayed

2-) Which relationship in the passage makes the opposition feel especially personal? (5 kelime)

The

3-) What does the passage imply about courage by pairing it with steadfastness and firmness? (14 kelime)

It presents courage

4-) What broad result followed from his call to the truth? (7 kelime)

Islam

5-) How does the passage move from outward action to inward belief?
(15 kelime)

It first describes

6-) In what way was his certainty unaffected by the climate of his time?
(10 kelime)

Neither social

7-) What does the phrase about illuminating the whole world suggest about his faith? (12 kelime)

Its influence and

8-) Why are the Companions singled out in the discussion of belief? (15 kelime)

They are presented

9-) What combined features lead the traveler to reject any claim of lying? (14 kelime)

His unique law,

10-) What kind of reasoning structure does the passage use overall? (13 kelime)

It lists qualities

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 5

1-) What does the passage say about his ability to continue his mission despite resistance? (11 kelime)

He continued

2-) Why is opposition from his own tribe important in the argument? (11 kelime)

It shows

3-) What is proved by the claim that he showed no fear or hesitation? (12 kelime)

It shows the

4-) What worldly achievement is mentioned after describing his courage? (11 kelime)

He brought

5-) How is his faith presented as more than personal opinion? (14 kelime)

It is shown

6-) What three sources of competing thought are named as unable to weaken him? (10 kelime)

Common beliefs,

7-) How much effect did hostility have on his confidence? (13 kelime)

None at all;

8-) How do later saintly believers strengthen the passage's argument?
(16 kelime)

Their continued reliance on 9-) What does the traveler conclude about someone with all these qualities? (10 kelime)

Such a

10-) Which two broad areas of excellence are combined in the final conclusion? (11 kelime)

Excellence in

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 6

1-) What aspect of his mission is stressed by the words about summoning people to the truth? (10 kelime)

He actively

2-) What does the passage reveal about the scale of opposition he faced? (12 kelime)

It was extremely

3-) How did he carry himself in the face of that opposition? (6 kelime)

He

4-) What is the significance of his challenging the whole world successfully? (16 kelime)

It serves as evidence

5-) What qualities make his faith stand out in the passage? (7 kelime)

Its

6-) What kinds of outside pressure failed to shake his belief? (7 kelime)

Intellectual,

7-) How does the passage connect the saintly people of later times to him? (18 kelime)

It says they took

8-) What special place do the Companions hold in this description? (14 kelime)

They stand at 9-) According to the traveler's reasoning, what do these traits say about his honesty? (11 kelime)

They show

10-) What is the overall conclusion of the target passage? (14 kelime)

His unmatched courage

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What personal quality did he show when powerful groups and even close relatives opposed him?

He showed unwavering resolve and courage, without backing down.

2-) Which kinds of opponents are mentioned in the passage?

Political powers, religious communities, his own people, his tribe, and even his uncle.

3-) How did he respond emotionally to that intense opposition?

He did not show fear, panic, or hesitation.

4-) What later historical outcome is given as evidence for the strength of his mission?

He overcame worldwide opposition and established Islam in a leading position.

5-) According to the passage, what does that success prove about his role in delivering the message?

It proves that no one equals him in calling people to the truth and carrying the message faithfully.

6-) How is his faith described in terms of strength and certainty?

It is presented as exceptionally strong, wide-reaching, and completely assured.

7-) What failed to shake his conviction?

The dominant beliefs, philosophical ideas, and religious teachings of his time, even when they were hostile to him.

8-) What effect did opposition have on his trust and confidence?

It did not weaken them at all.

9-) Who are said to have drawn from his faith across the generations?

The most spiritually upright believers of every age, especially the Companions.

10-) What conclusion did the traveler reach about truthfulness and deceit?

He concluded that falsehood and double-dealing could not belong to someone with such unique law, worship, prayer, call, and faith.

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main subject is emphasized in the first paragraph of the target passage?

His firmness and bravery in delivering the divine message.

2-) Why is the opposition against him presented as especially severe? Because it came not only from large outside powers but also from his own closest social circle.

3-) What does the passage suggest about his inner state during conflict?

His heart and mind remained steady and untroubled.

4-) How does the passage connect his steadfastness with the spread of Islam?

His victory and the rise of Islam are presented as signs of the truth and strength of his mission.

5-) What features of his faith are highlighted besides strength?

Its certainty, vastness, and elevated level.

6-) What kinds of intellectual or religious systems could not unsettle him?

The prevailing beliefs, philosophical schools, and teachings of religious authorities.

7-) What does it mean that later righteous believers drew from his fountain of faith?

Their own belief was nourished by his example and teaching.

8-) Who is named first among those outstanding believers?

The Companions.

9-) What does the passage say this continued reliance on his faith proves?

It proves that his faith is without equal.

10-) Which moral faults are ruled out in the final sentence?

Lying and hypocrisy-like double-dealing are ruled out.

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what two major qualities are used to support his truthfulness?

His fearless delivery of the message and his unmatched faith.

2-) What does the mention of his uncle add to the description of opposition?

It shows that resistance came from family as well as from public enemies.

3-) When faced with hostility, what signs of weakness are specifically denied?

Doubt, nervousness, fear, and hesitation.

4-) How is his public mission described in relation to the whole world?

He is portrayed as confronting the world and prevailing in his mission.

5-) Why does the passage treat this achievement as proof rather than just success?

Because such a result, joined with his steadfast character, points to an extraordinary and truthful mission.

6-) How does the passage portray the firmness of his belief compared with the ideas of his time?

His belief remained stronger than all competing systems of thought around him.

7-) What could hostile thinkers and religious leaders not produce in him?

They could not create doubt, insecurity, or weakness in his conviction.

8-) How do the saintly people of later ages function as evidence in the argument?

Their dependence on his model of belief shows that they saw his faith as the highest example.

9-) What is the traveler doing when he affirms this with his intellect?

He is reaching a reasoned conclusion, not just reacting emotionally.

10-) What final judgment is made about his character?

A person with those qualities cannot reasonably be accused of deceit.

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage show about his consistency under pressure?
He stayed firm in purpose even under intense and widespread hostility.

2-) Which relationship in the passage makes the opposition feel especially personal?

The mention of his uncle.

3-) What does the passage imply about courage by pairing it with steadfastness and firmness?

It presents courage as a stable moral strength, not a brief moment of boldness.

4-) What broad result followed from his call to the truth?

Islam became dominant on a world level.

5-) How does the passage move from outward action to inward belief?

It first describes his public endurance, then explains the unmatched strength of his inner faith.

6-) In what way was his certainty unaffected by the climate of his time?

Neither social pressure nor influential belief systems could disturb it.

7-) What does the phrase about illuminating the whole world suggest about his faith?

Its influence and clarity reached far beyond his own lifetime and place.

8-) Why are the Companions singled out in the discussion of belief?

They are presented as the leading example among those with the highest levels of faith.

9-) What combined features lead the traveler to reject any claim of lying?

His unique law, unmatched religion, deep worship, excellent prayer, universal call, and extraordinary faith.

10-) What kind of reasoning structure does the passage use overall?

It lists qualities and outcomes, then draws a moral conclusion about his truthfulness.

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say about his ability to continue his mission despite resistance?

He continued with complete determination even when surrounded by severe opposition.

2-) Why is opposition from his own tribe important in the argument? It shows that the pressure was close, constant, and socially costly.

3-) What is proved by the claim that he showed no fear or hesitation? It shows the exceptional strength of his character in carrying the message.

4-) What worldly achievement is mentioned after describing his courage?

He brought Islam to a position of mastery in the world.

5-) How is his faith presented as more than personal opinion? It is shown as deeply certain, expansive, and strong enough to withstand every challenge.

6-) What three sources of competing thought are named as unable to weaken him?

Common beliefs, philosophical teachings, and religious instruction from established leaders.

7-) How much effect did hostility have on his confidence?

None at all; it did not produce even the smallest crack in it.

8-) How do later saintly believers strengthen the passage's argument? Their continued reliance on his belief shows that they recognized his faith as the highest source.

9-) What does the traveler conclude about someone with all these qualities?

Such a person cannot be a liar or a deceiver.

10-) Which two broad areas of excellence are combined in the final conclusion?

Excellence in guiding others and excellence in personal faith and worship.

lisans supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What aspect of his mission is stressed by the words about summoning people to the truth?

He actively called people toward what is right and true.

2-) What does the passage reveal about the scale of opposition he faced?

It was extremely broad, including nations, religions, and even close family connections.

3-) How did he carry himself in the face of that opposition?

He remained calm, firm, and fearless.

4-) What is the significance of his challenging the whole world successfully?

It serves as evidence that his way of conveying the message was uniquely powerful and true.

5-) What qualities make his faith stand out in the passage?

Its power, certainty, breadth, and elevated nature.

6-) What kinds of outside pressure failed to shake his belief?

Intellectual, religious, and social opposition all failed.

7-) How does the passage connect the saintly people of later times to him?

It says they took spiritual nourishment from his faith and saw him as the highest example of belief.

8-) What special place do the Companions hold in this description?

They stand at the front of those known for the highest ranks of belief.

9-) According to the traveler's reasoning, what do these traits say about his honesty?

They show that dishonesty and insincerity are incompatible with his character.

10-) What is the overall conclusion of the target passage?

His unmatched courage in mission and unmatched certainty in faith confirm his complete truthfulness.