1-) How is the prophets' agreement connected to belief in Allah?

Their agreement supports not only his mission but also the existence and oneness of Allah.

2-) What does the prophets' testimony prove about this being?

It proves that he is truthful and that he truly carries the mission of a messenger.

3-) What is meant by saying the prophets agreed through their deeds?

Their miracles and prophetic actions pointed in the same direction and backed his mission.

4-) What does the passage say existed in him "in full measure" compared with other prophets?

The qualities, signs, and duties that indicate genuine prophethood.

5-) What title or role is implied for him when the passage says he is foremost in prophetic tasks?

He is portrayed as the leading and most complete messenger in carrying out prophetic work.

6-) In the fifth section, who are the next group that testify in his favor?

The saints who reached truth and spiritual perfection by following his teaching.

7-) What does the passage imply about the relationship between following him and reaching spiritual perfection?

It presents following him as the path through which saints reached those high states.

8-) What does their experience of unseen truths imply about his message?

It implies that what he taught about unseen realities is trustworthy and true.

9-) How would you summarize the logical flow from prophets to saints?

First, earlier prophets point to him and confirm him; then later saints follow him and verify his teachings through lived spiritual experience.

10-) What did the traveler recognize from all this testimony?

He recognized that the great being's truthfulness and straightness were clearly established.
