

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 1

1-) What main result has continued for about thirteen centuries because of the Qur'an's qualities mentioned in the passage? (20 kelime)

Its exalted spiritual authority and

2-) According to the passage, what basic reward is connected to each letter of the Qur'an? (13 kelime)

Each letter brings

3-) How does the passage describe the reward of letters in some verses and suras? (21 kelime)

In some cases, the reward

4-) What happens to the value and reward of Qur'anic letters during blessed times? (11 kelime)

Their light,

5-) What did the traveler do after understanding these truths? (9 kelime)

He turned

6-) What relationship does the passage show between the Qur'an's qualities and its rewards? (16 kelime)

Its elevated qualities are

7-) What role do blessed times play in the passage's teaching about recitation? (11 kelime)

They multiply

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 2

1-) Over what two broad arenas has this influence continued, according to the passage? (10 kelime)

It has

2-) What is the smallest reward mentioned for a single letter of the Qur'an? (12 kelime)

The minimum mentioned

3-) What comparison can be made between ordinary times and blessed times in the passage? (20 kelime)

In ordinary times the reward

4-) Why is the phrase about certain verses and suras important in the argument of the passage? (25 kelime)

It shows that not all reward

5-) Why does the passage end with the traveler speaking to his heart instead of to other people? (16 kelime)

The lesson is presented

6-) How does the passage move from general rewards to special cases? (20 kelime)

It begins with the basic

7-) Why is the traveler's reaction included at the end? (16 kelime)

To show that these

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 3

1-) What causes the Qur'an's long-lasting brilliance and authority in this passage? (14 kelime)

The cause is

2-) How long does the passage say this radiant authority has lasted? (11 kelime)

It says

3-) What effect has this authority had on history and the world? (17 kelime)

It has brought light

4-) Besides authority and influence, what other honor is connected to the Qur'an in the passage? (18 kelime)

Its letters are described

5-) What three forms of gain are tied to each letter at the minimum level? (5 kelime)

Reward,

6-) What spiritual lesson can a student take from the statement about blessed times? (15 kelime)

A believer should

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 4

1-) What does the passage present as evidence of the Qur'an's elevated status over time? (18 kelime)

Its sacred and radiant

2-) Name the three kinds of return mentioned for each letter. (5 kelime)

Rewards,

3-) How does the passage describe the reward attached to certain parts of the Qur'an? (15 kelime)

Some verses and

4-) What happens to the benefit of recitation during blessed periods? (11 kelime)

The spiritual

5-) What does speaking to his heart suggest about the traveler's next step? (14 kelime)

He is moving

6-) How does the passage describe the reward of some verses and suras compared with ordinary letters? (14 kelime)

Their reward is

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 5

1-) How is that lasting authority described in tone and appearance? (12 kelime)

It is described

2-) What does the passage say about the reward of a single letter from the Qur'an? (12 kelime)

Even one letter

3-) Does the passage present Qur'anic reward as fixed at one level? Explain. (18 kelime)

No. It gives a

4-) What is the significance of mentioning both letters and larger units like verses and suras? (18 kelime)

It shows that blessing

5-) How does the mention of eternal fruits deepen the meaning of reward? (15 kelime)

It shows the

6-) What special condition causes the reward to rise even more? (13 kelime)

Sacred or blessed

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 6

1-) What two major honors of the Qur'an are emphasized in this passage? (12 kelime)

Its long-lasting sacred

2-) How long does the passage say the Qur'an's shining authority has endured? (3 kelime)

3-) Where has this influence been seen? (7 kelime)

Across

4-) What minimum number is given for the reward connected to each Qur'anic letter? (1 kelime)

5-) What additional kinds of blessing are mentioned besides reward? (4 kelime)

Merit

6-) What happened immediately after the traveler understood these matters? (5 kelime)

He

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and- testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and- the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main result has continued for about thirteen centuries because of the Qur'an's qualities mentioned in the passage?

Its exalted spiritual authority and holy influence have continued across time and the world in a shining and powerful way.

2-) According to the passage, what basic reward is connected to each letter of the Qur'an?

Each letter brings at least ten rewards, ten merits, and ten lasting fruits.

3-) How does the passage describe the reward of letters in some verses and suras?

In some cases, the reward rises far beyond the basic level, reaching a hundred or a thousand fruits, or even more.

4-) What happens to the value and reward of Qur'anic letters during blessed times?

Their light, worth, and reward increase from ten to many hundreds.

5-) What did the traveler do after understanding these truths?

He turned inward and spoke to his own heart.

6-) What relationship does the passage show between the Qur'an's qualities and its rewards?

Its elevated qualities are the reason its influence lasts and its recitation brings such multiplied reward.

7-) What role do blessed times play in the passage's teaching about recitation?

They multiply the light, value, and reward connected to each letter.

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and- testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and- the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Over what two broad arenas has this influence continued, according to the passage?

It has continued over the centuries and across the earth.

2-) What is the smallest reward mentioned for a single letter of the Qur'an?

The minimum mentioned is ten rewards, ten merits, and ten everlasting fruits.

3-) What comparison can be made between ordinary times and blessed times in the passage?

In ordinary times the reward starts at ten, while in blessed times it becomes much greater, rising into the hundreds.

4-) Why is the phrase about certain verses and suras important in the argument of the passage?

It shows that not all reward is described in a flat way; some parts carry even greater blessing, which points to layers of sacred excellence.

5-) Why does the passage end with the traveler speaking to his heart instead of to other people?

The lesson is presented as deeply personal, showing that real understanding should settle inside the soul.

6-) How does the passage move from general rewards to special cases?

It begins with the basic reward of every letter, then adds that some verses and suras carry much greater returns.

7-) Why is the traveler's reaction included at the end?

To show that these truths are meant to be received personally and to awaken the heart.

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 3 -
CEVAPLAR

1-) What causes the Qur'an's long-lasting brilliance and authority in this passage?

The cause is the set of noble qualities and distinguishing features already pointed out.

2-) How long does the passage say this radiant authority has lasted?
It says it has lasted for one thousand three hundred years.

3-) What effect has this authority had on history and the world?
It has brought light and splendor to the passing centuries and to the face of the earth.

4-) Besides authority and influence, what other honor is connected to the Qur'an in the passage?

Its letters are described as having a holy honor through the rewards and lasting benefits attached to them.

5-) What three forms of gain are tied to each letter at the minimum level?

Reward, merit, and eternal fruit.

6-) What spiritual lesson can a student take from the statement about blessed times?

A believer should value special times for worship because acts done then carry increased benefit.

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 4 -
CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage present as evidence of the Qur'an's elevated status over time?

Its sacred and radiant authority has continued in a glorious way through many centuries and across the earth.

2-) Name the three kinds of return mentioned for each letter.
Rewards, merits, and everlasting fruits.

3-) How does the passage describe the reward attached to certain parts of the Qur'an?

Some verses and chapters carry much greater reward, reaching a hundred, a thousand, or beyond.

4-) What happens to the benefit of recitation during blessed periods?
The spiritual light, reward, and worth of each letter increase dramatically.

5-) What does speaking to his heart suggest about the traveler's next step?

He is moving from learning facts to internalizing them and preparing for deeper faith.

6-) How does the passage describe the reward of some verses and suras compared with ordinary letters?

Their reward is much greater and can reach hundreds or thousands, or even more.

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 5 -
CEVAPLAR

1-) How is that lasting authority described in tone and appearance?

It is described as lofty, radiant, sacred, mighty, and full of splendor.

2-) What does the passage say about the reward of a single letter from the Qur'an?

Even one letter carries at least tenfold spiritual return and lasting benefit.

3-) Does the passage present Qur'anic reward as fixed at one level? Explain.

No. It gives a minimum level, then explains that some passages and blessed times bring much higher reward.

4-) What is the significance of mentioning both letters and larger units like verses and suras?

It shows that blessing exists at every level of the Qur'an, from the smallest unit to larger sections.

5-) How does the mention of eternal fruits deepen the meaning of reward?

It shows the benefit is not temporary but reaches into the everlasting life to come.

6-) What special condition causes the reward to rise even more?

Sacred or blessed times cause the reward, light, and value to increase greatly.

lisans supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-
testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-
the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 6 -
CEVAPLAR

1-) What two major honors of the Qur'an are emphasized in this passage?

Its long-lasting sacred authority and the immense reward attached to its letters.

2-) How long does the passage say the Qur'an's shining authority has endured?

About thirteen centuries.

3-) Where has this influence been seen?

Across the centuries and over the earth.

4-) What minimum number is given for the reward connected to each Qur'anic letter?

Ten.

5-) What additional kinds of blessing are mentioned besides reward? Merit and eternal fruit.

6-) What happened immediately after the traveler understood these matters?

He addressed his own heart.