lisans supreme-sign-p81-2nd-stopping-place-1st-truth- grandeur-and-sublimity - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage suggest about the reach of the Creator's activity among the stars?

It says stars separated by enormous distances are created and governed together.

2-) How does the passage portray the creation and administration of stars?

As occurring together under one pattern despite immense distances.

3-) What is remarkable about how those many kinds are handled?

They are managed quickly and perfectly without disorder or mistake.

4-) What does that single-act argument say about the identity of the Doer?

The Doer must be uniquely one and fully powerful.

5-) What does the passage say about Allah's knowledge of people?

He knows and directs even the most hidden thoughts in their hearts.

6-) Which Divine attribute would seem needy if partnership were allowed?

Divine power.

7-) What is the second truth mainly about?

It is about the unlimited and universal character of Allah's governing acts in the universe.

8-) Why is shirk described as an enormous crime?

Because it offends Allah's grandeur, glory, and sublime rank.

9-) What is said about the elements that are scattered everywhere?

They also cannot be partners in these wise and measured acts.

10-) What lies behind those coverings in reality?

The command, will, and power of Allah.

lisans supreme-sign-p81-2nd-stopping-place-1st-truth- grandeur-and-sublimity - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the core claim of the first truth in this passage?

Allah's unmatched greatness and loftiness rule out any partner.

2-) How does the passage use flowers to support its point about Divine unity?

It says countless flowers of the same kind appear across the earth together and with the same pattern, which points to one Maker.

3-) What makes that renewal a proof rather than just a seasonal habit?

It happens with precision, balance, and no confusion across huge numbers of species.

4-) What logical step does the passage make after listing many acts?

It says they are truly one act and so come from one Doer.

5-) According to the passage, what does this grandeur leave no room for?

It leaves no room at all for any partner.

6-) Why would shirk amount to attributing weakness?

Because sharing rule would imply the need for support.

7-) Why is shirk not treated as just another error?

Because it directly violates Allah's majesty, glory, and loftiness.

8-) What is the second truth introduced after the first?

It is the absoluteness, comprehensiveness, and boundless appearance of dominical deeds in the cosmos.

9-) What kind of acts are they unable to produce?

Acts that are balanced, wise, life-giving, orderly, and firmly established.

10-) What does the passage promise next after introducing the second truth?
